

Union Chapel

RESTORATION OF CHAPEL HILL PARK

About

Built in 1870, Union Chapel in Oak Bluffs—home of the Christian Union—has long been a gathering place for worship, music, and community events. Today, the landmark is owned and cared for by the Vineyard Preservation Trust, which has expanded its programming to include music, art, and cultural events, enriching the story the Chapel tells. Your gift helps preserve this treasured landmark and creates a lasting legacy—connecting your name to history and ensuring Union Chapel's vibrant role in Island life for generations to come.
